“मुस्कान”

मुस्कान वो बेशकीमती नेमत है जो बहुत कुछ रचती है।
होती है क्षणिक पर यादों में सदा के लिए बस जाती है ॥

कोई इतना अमीर नहीं जो इसके बिना काम चला सके।
कोई इतना गरीब भी नहीं जो इसके फायदे न उठा सके ॥

दोस्ती की पहचान है ये, थकावट का प्रस्थान है।
उदासी के लिए फुलझड़ी, पहेली का समाधान है ॥

क्योंकि यह चीज ही ऐसी है जो जिन्दगी को खूबसूरत बनाती है
इंसान को अमन चैन से जीने की राह दिखाती है ॥

मुस्कान ऐसी चीज है जो सारे भुवन में व्याप्त है।
ब्रह्माण्ड भी पूरा नहीं इसके लिए पर्याप्त हैं हम ॥

यह ऐसी चीज है जो चेहरे का नूर बढ़ाती है।
पल्लवित कुसुम जैसी अपनी खुशबू से महकाती है ॥

आशाओं का दामन है ये, रोगी का आराम है।
इस दुर्गम जीवन में, सफलता का आयाम है ॥

खुशियों की सौगात है ये, कुदरत का उपहार है।
बच्चे की किलकारी है ये, खुशियों का इजहार है ॥

“BEGGARS AND SELLERS”

Begging or selling, the either task isn't easy. Each has a distinctive style of its own. But the one thing that is common in their set theory is that both are all about convincing.

Some very rhetoric managerial skills are required to suffice as both and to augment your resume to be eligible as both; you must have a taste for conglomeration i.e., bringing things together. For instance, the begging workforce on a cross road or a zebra crossing, have an ability to serve as a harbinger for almost anything. As they might just create couples out of girls and girls and boys....

It therefore is ironically noteworthy, that it is not simply and plainly, the influence of the west on our tender eastern heart and minds, but the fanatical blessings or curses should I say which is equally responsible for the growing gay and lesbian population in the census statistics i.e., speaking only sarcastically, as I am unaware whether the population index includes any such information.

Coming to the other cult which is that of the sellers, they are not just defined by that one "term". They have to their advantage dimensions more than one quite literally this time. Keeping the same venue in supposition, they can plead and sell, they can cry and sell, they can laugh and sell or they can even direct and sell.

One needs utmost will, aptitude, determination and above all a desire to sell, and remember, the slightest of languidness at work time can get the emoluments allayed.

Reverting back to the beggars, another feature of their magnetic personalities is sense of observation. They truly are avid observers. As it requires a lot of observation, oodles of interpretation and ample of behavioral reading to chalk out the begging strategy, which suits best the present subject. Begging styles may range from whining, pleading, praising, crusing and outraging to even touching the sediment layers of the heart. But each of these varies greatly, with the person being approached. Subjects may range from students to housewives, to retired personnel's and these diligent workers have a manner absolutely relative, rational, improvisable and impromptu, taking into consideration their immediate targets.

Again, talking of selling, selling always involves a degree of begging. It is basically begging to the extent or to a level, which is just right to get your services or products sold. The precision and accuracy, to get to this optimum level of begging is a consequence of years of experience and expertise.

Thus, begging and selling are complementary to one another and both follow the pursuing pathways. It can annoy you to madness or let cascades run down your eyes.
